STALLHOLDER CONDITIONS

By applying for a stall at the Eudunda Christmas Street Party, stallholders agree to:

- Provide their own tables, chairs, gazebo/marquee and other equipment required for their stall.
- Ensure all gazebos, marquees and displays are safely and appropriately secured/weighted.
- Provide their own generator, leads and equipment if power is required.
- Keep their stall and surrounding area clean, safe and tidy throughout the event.
- Remove all rubbish, equipment and belongings from their site at the conclusion of the event.
- Follow reasonable directions provided by event organisers regarding stall placement, setup, safety and operation of the event.

- Remain responsible for their own property, equipment and products throughout the event.
- Advise the organisers if their stall requirements or products change after submitting this application.

Please note: Stall locations will be allocated by the Eudunda Christmas Party Committee. Specific site requests may be considered but cannot be guaranteed.

Further information regarding stall allocation, arrival, setup and pack-down times will be provided to confirmed stallholders closer to the event.

STALLHOLDER DECLARATION

I have read and agree to the above stallholder conditions. I understand that submitting this form does not automatically secure my site and that my booking will only be confirmed once the $25 stallholder fee has been received.
